“Man is a harp of a thousand strings ;”
Touch the spiritual chord of his heart,
And lo! with what inspiration he sings,
Unaided by science, unskilled in art.
’Tis the voice of God in his soul that sings,
And is more than a harp of a thousand strings.

PREFACE.

The gift and inspiration of spiritual songs has been with Believers ever since the establishment of the Order over one hundred years ago.

In the early days of devout and religious fervor, the outpouring of soulful emotion in praise and devotion was simple in the extreme, but it was original and peculiarly expressive of the sentiments of an awakened people who had consecrated themselves to the service of God and the best interests of their fellow men.

All through the century, as light and testimony have increased, there has been a broadening and deepening of the stream of inspiring song, which in the blessed ministration of truth has reached and touched many hearts, and lifted souls into the divine element of the Christ life.

We send abroad this book of original music with the hope that it may in some measure meet the needs of progressive Christian people, who have emerged from the shadows of a false theology which is more fully set forth in the hymnals of the orthodox churches.

Not for its scientific merits, but for the truthfulness of its testimony as expressed in simple words and music, we commend this collection.

The marches are marked M.; and the slow marches, S. M.

 Chasten us and in mer-cy for-give, Con-trol us in ev-'ry place.
 Many in sin have wander'd a - way, From justice and goodness shown;

Bread wilt Thou give to the hun-gry, Toil-ing and faint be - low,
 Weak are our ef-forts; yet trust-ing, Ev - er we look to Thee,
 Yet Thou hast follow'd their footsteps, Prodi - gal hearts redress'd;

Drink to the thirst-y who ask in faith, Thou art a - ble; Thy pow'r we know.

 Thine is the glo - ry for - ev - er more, Thy pow - er for - ev - er bless'd.

REJOICE, REJOICE, O MY PEOPLE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Re - joyce, re-joyce, O my people, and be glad! For great are the blessings you en-joy; Sur-rouned by an-gels, Oh why should you be with you when tri - als op-press, I will hold you in the hol - low of my hand, Then be joy - ful, my peo - ple, and

LET NOT TEMPTATION.

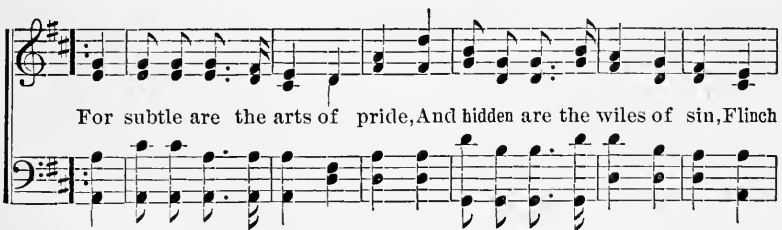

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

Let not temptation lure thy soul, Assert thy faith, as-assert thy love, Let

For subtle are the arts of pride, And hidden are the wiles of sin, Flinch

GLAD REIGN OF PEACE.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. Pure as the fadeless noon-day light, Calm as the gentle hush of night,
 2. Read we of days when sword and spear Darkened the earth with death and fear;
 3. Ma - ny ho-san-nas joy - ous - ly, Sound-ed in Bethlehem, glad and free,

 Love chorded not in the strains of cheer, Nor peace, Pure, heaven-ly peace.
 And on the plains of fair Gal - i - lee, For the Prince of heaven-ly peace.
 Grateful to God who has filled the way With peace, Pure, heaven-ly peace.

Come to our hearts with thy love-li-ness, Soft-en our lives, control and bless,
 But to the world, in its gloom and blight, Now has appeared the Christ of light,

IN THE FAIR HEIGHT OF HEAVEN.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. In the fair height of heav-en beameth hope's cheering light, A bea - con it shines thro' the dark-ness of night, A guide to direct us thro' the tri - al and strife That would gather around us the shad-ows of life. It is cheer to our spir - its as we jour-ney thro' Time, Lead-ing ev - er on and up - ward to the bright morn-ing clime Where the heart, cleans'd from e - vil, and the soul ris - ing free Re - joi - ces in the glo - ry of the pure and free.

FOR THY LOVE.

1. For Thy love and tender care, O God, A thankful off'ring we will bring from our hearts. Blessings unnumbered, mercies untold, have been ours to share, And now we ask, we humbly ask for a con-tin-uance of Thy care.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. O spirit of Truth, where can we find thee? We seek thy grand utterance sublime ;
 2. O spir-it of Love, where can we find thee? The earth is so void of thy grace ;
 3. O spir-it of Truth, com-fort-er giv-en, Pro-gres-sion must follow thy path ;

Free to ac-cept thee our spir-its will be, And e'en up thy rough mountain climb.
 God hath ap-point-ed, yet fet-ters bind thee, And self-ish-ness rules in thy place.
 Ra-di-ant love, empow'ered from heaven, Will ban-ish earth's anguish and wrath.

Look not for me . . . where there is sin, What-e'er its glitt'ring ar-ray ;
 Look not for me . . . where en-vy reigns Heartless and cold as the clay ;
 Aid and sus-tain us, great is our need, While we must la-bor and pray ;

On-ly un-flinch-ing and honest hearts win, There you will find me to-day.
 But where ex-alt-ed de-vo-tion ob-tains, There you will find me to-day.
 Help us to cher-ish life's im-mor-tal seed Sown for Mil-len-ni-al day.

FORGIVE AS THOU WOULD'ST BE 257
FORGIVEN.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. For-give, as thou wouldst be forgiv'n, For-sake not those who stand a - lone, If Thou would'st gain a home in heav'n Where strife and en - vy are unknown, While climb-ing up the moun - tain steep Oh let thy hand in love be giv'n, And an - gel friends their watch will keep Till thou hast reach'd thy home in heav'n.

MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. Is there not placed in thy heart A mon - i - tor to teach thee?
2. Judg - ing first thy - self in wrong, Will not thy heart feel sor-row?
3. Mer - cy to thy neighbor give, Tho' err-ing, still thy broth-er;

Doth not God's free love im-part A spir - it pure to reach thee?
 May there not to thee be-long Much more than thou wouldst bor-row?
 Does he wrong? forgive, forgive, And strive to love each oth - er.

Beams there not from heav-en, light To guide thy footsteps tru - ly?
 Wis-dom bids thee to come down, In own-ing up thy er - ror,
 Keep ye judgment, jus-tice do, For time is short and fleet-ing.

Canst thou then not judge aright, And bal-ance all things du - ly?
 How canst thou wear truth's bright crown While wrong keeps thee in ter-ror?
 Soon we'll bid this earth a - dieu, In heav'n be next our meet-ing.
